

JOB DESCRIPTION

Engineer

Discipline: Pipelines & Subsea

Location: Aberdeen

Responsible to: Senior Engineer / Lead Engineer

Duties

- Technical – the ability to provide first class engineering in one or more of the following fields: risers, subsea pipelines, landfalls, subsea manifolds, piping design, as directed by the Senior Engineer or Lead Engineer, as appropriate
- Quality – ensuring the work is performed in accordance with the company quality procedures.
- Business Awareness – the ability to identify with Business Stream strategy and core competencies and convey to internal and external clients
- Proposals – to assist, where necessary, Business Stream Management in preparing proposals by providing technical support

Qualifications:

- Good first degree (Upper Second) in an Engineering Discipline
- Post-graduate qualification in a related discipline is desirable, although not a pre-requisite

Required Experience/Knowledge:

- Minimum 2 years track record in pipeline and subsea design within project teams
- Demonstrable ability and enthusiasm to deliver efficient analytical solutions to engineering design tasks

Computer/Other Skills:

- High computer literacy with MS Office, MathCAD, FE Analysis and other specific technical. Analysis packages. Knowledge of Pipesim and Autopipe would be desirable.

Other Considerations:

- Must be confident with good written and oral communications skills
- Must have ability to work effectively under pressure